Alcom Printing Group, Inc. Named 2020 Best Workplace in the Americas

Harleysville, PA –February 1, 2020 – Alcom Printing Group, Inc. of Harleysville, PA, a western suburb of Philadelphia, has been awarded the Best Workplace designation in the 2020 Best Workplace in the Americas (BWA) awards competition. The BWA awards are awarded to companies that create the best environments for their employees. The BWA awards, presented by Printing Industries of America (PIA), is awarded annually to only those companies meeting rigorous standards in human resources practices.

Being designated a Best Workplace company demonstrates the significant commitment that Alcom has made to its employees by investing in their work environment, their personal goals and ambitions, and recognizing that an exceptional workplace also serves the needs of the company.

A panel of printing industry HR professionals evaluated applicants in three categories: Communications & Culture, Employee Resources & Benefits, and Safety & Work Environment. “Alcom is one of the premier companies in the printing industry for employee experiences,” said Adriane Harrison, vice president of Human Relations at PIA. “This award is a testament to Alcom’s leadership in developing an ‘employer of choice’ culture.”

“It’s an honor to be recognized by the industry as a company that offers a superior workplace. Winning a BWA award is an honor,” said Don Eichman, President & CEO.

Michael F. Makin, president and CEO of PIA, agrees. “The Best Workplace in the Americas award winners stand among the most distinguished printing industry leaders by human resources standards. Congratulations to Alcom for its outstanding achievement in human resources excellence.”
